LATEST NEWS.

The letest news from Shanghal regarding affairs in Corea is to the effect that China gave the Japanese troops sine-days' cotice. to leave the country, dating from 27th ult. The price of coal is still on the rise, and the Japanese in Nagasaki are confident that war will be declared between the two countries, and that the shipment of coal to China will then be stopped. There is a widespread feeling in the Foreign community that China will fight, although there is one very important reason which may operate as a deterrent; the birthday festivities of the Empress Dowsger are now in active preparation at a cost of Taels 12,000,000. The Chinese will doubtless consider it 'bad joss' to fight at such a by Moukhtar Pacha, on Saturday.
